

LGBTQ+ED

CFH'S LGBTQ+ PROGRAM WEEKLY NEWSLETTER

OCTOBER 2021

word of the week

Out: A term which describes people who openly self-identify as LGBTQ+ in their private, public, and/or professional lives.

There are many states of being out; individuals can be out only to themselves, close friends, or everyone.

PFLAG National Glossary of Terms

LGBTQ youth who had access to spaces that affirmed their sexual orientation and gender identity reported lower rates of attempting suicide.

The Trevor Project: National Survey on LGBTQ Youth Mental Health 2021

clickable educational article

Bi+ Education

this week in LGBTQ+ history

October 26, 1996 – Intersex Awareness Day and the first public demonstration by The Intersex Society of North America

clickable news links

- Celebrating National Coming Out Day | Race and Culture
- Honoring an LGBTQ icon: Pennsylvania unveils first historical marker of a Latina
- Texas Erases LGBTQ+ Youth Support Services From State Website
- The Overlooked LGBTQ+ History of the Harlem Renaissance
- Amid Chaos at Rikers, Women and Transgender People to Be Transferred

Sources: ABC, them, TIME, Al Día, NY Times

NATIONAL
COMING OUT
DAY
10.11.21

"THE RICHNESS, BEAUTY AND DEPTHS OF LOVE CAN ONLY BE FULLY EXPERIENCED IN A CLIMATE OF COMPLETE OPENNESS, HONESTY AND VULNERABILITY." - ANTHONY VENN BROWN